

DEPARTMENTAL LIBRARY

Mechanical Engineering departmental library consist of various books of subjects running in various years. The sole purpose of this library is to ease the faculties to access the available resources The departmental library was set up considering the demands of faculties for book that they need for whole semester.

It is updated as per requirement provided by faculties and the new book requisitions are sent to central library timely. The audit is performed semester wise. It consists of a quite study area also.

Library also consist of previous years project files which is accessible to students only when their guide give a consent letter permitted by head of the department.

ME library incharge : Er. Chitra Bajpai

Multi-tasking staff: Alok Shukla

